

MYSON SANTUARY BIKING TOUR

Mỹ Sơn is a cluster of abandoned and partially ruined Hindu temples constructed between the 4th and the 14th century AD by the kings of Champa (Chiêm Thành in Vietnamese). The temples are dedicated to the worship of the god Shiva, known under various local names, the most important of which is “Bhadresvara”.

8:00 am	Our tour guide will welcome you at the hotel. You will start the tour with a wonderful experience in cycling through immense green fields and vegetables villages in Hoi An.
8:45 am	Visit Phuoc Kieu Bronze Casting Village. You may have chance to take part in making process of bronze good and understand how careful craftsmen are in order to create an product.
9:30 am	Stop by a sidewalk café. Enjoy a cup of traditional Vietnamese coffee. Visit rice paper making village. You will have a challenge to make rice papers with the locals.
11:00 am	Follow your guide on a walking tour around the impressive tower-temples -remains of the political and religious capital of the Champa Kingdom.
12:30 pm	Have an informal lunch at the local resident’s house. Here, you will enjoy tasty local foods, have a cup of tea and take a rest.
2:00 pm	Back to the hotel by car/ minivan. We will stop by to visit poor residents at Duy Xuyen Village on the way back. (Our company will prepare gifts).

Price: 75 USD /1pax (min 2pax)
(1.687.000 VND)

Price of the package includes:

- Professional English speaking tour guide
- Bike
- Van/ Car
- Entrance fee, tickets
- Waters
- Lunch
- Gifts for elderly residents as mentioned above.